Worship Begins With Prayer

Call to Worship

Leader: The Lord is in his holy temple.

People: Let all the earth keep silence before him.

Leader: O come, let us worship and bow down.

People: Let us kneel before the Lord our maker!

All: Lord of the harvest, impress upon us in this time of worship the need for laborers to go out into the fields and bring those who have not yet accepted you as Savior into the fold of your Church. Give to each of us the faith that will enable us to do our share of the work, and grant that we may find joy in our sharing of your love. Amen.

Opening Song #418 "America, the Beautiful"

Scriptures

Luke 10:1-24 NLT The Lord now chose seventy-two other disciples and sent them ahead in pairs to all the towns and places He planned to visit. (2) These were His instructions to them: "The harvest is great, but the workers are few. So pray to the Lord who is in charge of the harvest; ask Him to send more workers into His fields. (3) Now go, and remember that I am sending you out as lambs among wolves. (4) Don't take any money with you, nor a traveler's bag, nor an extra pair of sandals. And don't stop to greet anyone on the road. (5) "Whenever you enter someone's home, first say, 'May God's peace be on this house.' (6) If those who live there are peaceful, the blessing will stand; if they are not, the blessing will return to you. (7) Don't move around from home to home. Stay in one place, eating and drinking what they provide. Don't hesitate to accept hospitality, because those who work deserve their pay. (8) "If you enter a town and it welcomes you, eat whatever is set before you. (9) Heal the sick, and tell them, 'The Kingdom of God is near you now.' (10) But if a town refuses to welcome you, go out into its streets and say, (11) 'We wipe even the dust of your town from our feet to show that we have abandoned you to your fate. And know this—the Kingdom of God is near!' (12) I assure you, even wicked Sodom will be better off than such a town on judgment day. (13) "What sorrow awaits you, Korazin and Bethsaida! For if the miracles I did in you had been done in wicked Tyre and Sidon, their people would have repented of their sins long ago, clothing themselves in burlap and throwing ashes on their heads to show their remorse. (14) Yes, Tyre and Sidon will be better off on judgment day than you. (15) And you people of Capernaum, will you be honored in heaven? No, you will go down to the place of the dead. " (16) Then He said to the disciples, "Anyone who accepts your message is also accepting Me. And anyone who rejects you is rejecting Me. And anyone who rejects Me is rejecting God, who sent Me." (17) When the seventy-two disciples returned, they joyfully reported to Him, "Lord, even the demons obey us when we use Your name!" (18) "Yes," He told them, "I saw Satan fall from heaven like lightning! (19) Look, I have given you authority over all the power of the enemy, and you can walk among snakes and scorpions and crush them. Nothing will injure you. (20) But don't rejoice because evil spirits obey you; rejoice because your names are registered in heaven." (21) At that same time Jesus was filled with the joy of the Holy Spirit, and He said, "O Father, Lord of heaven and earth, thank You for hiding these things from those who think themselves wise and clever, and for revealing them to the childlike. Yes, Father, it pleased You to do it this way. (22) "My Father has entrusted everything to Me. No one truly knows the Son except the Father, and no one truly knows the Father except the Son and those to whom the Son chooses to reveal Him." (23) Then when they were alone, He turned to the disciples and said, "Blessed are the eyes that see what you have seen. (24) I tell you, many prophets and kings longed to see what you see, but they didn't see it. And they longed to hear what you hear, but they didn't hear it."

Confession of Sin

All: O God, so many times we have failed to proclaim your love and to bear witness to your forgiveness, which is available to all who truly turn to you. Forgive us, we pray, and fill us with your Holy Spirit that we may become bold in sharing the Good News of Jesus Christ, our Lord and Savior. Amen.

THE APOSTLES CREED

I believe in God, the Father Almighty,
The Creator of heaven and earth,
And in Jesus Christ, His only begotten Son, our Lord:
Who was conceived of the Holy Spirit,
Born of the Virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate,
Was crucified, died, and was buried.

He descended into hell. The third day
He arose again from the dead.
He ascended into heaven and
Sits at the right hand of God the Father Almighty,
From whence He shall come to judge
The living and the dead.

I believe in the Holy Spirit,
The one holy universal Christian church,
The communion of saints, the forgiveness of sins,
The resurrection of the body, and the life everlasting.
Amen.

Sacrament of Holy Communion:

The Sacrament of Communion is open to all persons who believe that Jesus is Lord and Savior.

Today communion will be served in the pews.

As you receive the bread, partake of it as you are moved by the Spirit. (the communion bread is gluten free)

As you receive the cup, hold it so that we all may partake of it together, as one body of Christ.

Unison Prayer of Thanksgiving

We thank you, God, for inviting us to this table where we have known the presence of Christ and have received all Christ's gifts. Strengthen our faith, increase our love for one another, and let us show forth your praise in our lives; through Jesus Christ our Savior. Amen

Closing Song #772 “For the Bread Which You Have Broken”

Closing Response Amen; Amen; Amen.

Bible Study, Tuesdays at 10 am in Conference Room

Join us for, "Before Amen" by Max Lucado
In Before Amen best-selling author Max Lucado joins readers on a journey to the very heart of biblical prayer, offering hope for doubts and confidence even for prayer wimps. Distilling prayers in the Bible down to one pocket-sized prayer, Max reminds readers that prayer is not a privilege for the pious nor the art of a chosen few. Prayer is simply a heartfelt conversation between God and his child. Let the conversation begin.

We all pray . . . some.

We pray to stay sober, centered, or solvent. When the lump is deemed malignant. When the money runs out before the month does. When the marriage is falling apart. We pray.
But wouldn't we like to pray more? Better? Stronger? With more fire, faith, and fervency?

Yet we have kids to feed, bills to pay, deadlines to meet. The calendar pounces on our good intentions like a tiger on a rabbit. And what about our checkered history with prayer? Uncertain words. Unmet expectations. Unanswered requests.

We aren't the first to struggle with prayer. The first followers of Jesus needed prayer guidance too. In fact, prayer is the only tutorial they ever requested.

And Jesus gave them a prayer. Not a lecture on prayer. Not the doctrine of prayer. He gave them a quotable, repeatable, portable prayer. Couldn't we use the same?

July Tote

The tote for July will be for backpacks. We are asking for canned vegetables only.
